The Most Awkward Party

Imagine it's your funeral, and everyone who has ever met you is gathered in the same room: all your past and present loves, your neighbors, your role models, your friends and family, everyone you've ever worked with, the last stranger you talked to for just a sec... they're all here. What do you wish they would say about the impact you've had on their lives?

BONUS:

Are they saying anything about you that's not true yet, or anymore, but you'd like it to be true? What can you do to make it so?
